View of the Ugo Rondinone exhibition at Kukje Gallery Kukje Gallery

Ugo Rondinone: Kukje Gallery presents a solo exhibition of Swiss artist Ugo Rondinone. The artist, based in New York, has garnered international attention with his poetic, evocative work across a wide range of styles and media. The artist showcases five monolithic sculptures, which consist of roughly cut stones that are stacked to form a human figure in his Seoul exhibition. His works have been showcased at major galleries and museums such as Whitechapel Art Gallery in London, New Museum of Contemporary Art in New York and Rockbund Art Museum in Shanghai. The exhibition runs through Oct. 11 at Kukje Gallery in Samcheong-ro, Jongno, Seoul. For more information, visit www.kukjegallery.com.
